

The Warning - The End (Stars Always Seem To Fade)

tom:

[Primeira Parte]

Abm

I don't regret, wish
 I could forget 'Cause all the things I've done and
 All the things I've said
 Don't go away
 They stay with me
 Like a constant loop inside my mind that's always on repeat

[Segunda Parte]

I know it was wrong but there's nothing to be done Anymore, anymore
 I won't forgive myself 'cause pity doesn't help anymore
 anymore

[Refrão]

This is the end. So long my friends
 Stars always seem to fade it's a little too late to
 With bloodstained hands I make amends
 Stars always seem to fade

[Terceira Parte]

They'll never know 'cause I'll never say Anything about the memories that live inside my head
 They stay with me. They don't go away
 They haunt me every night while I'm lying in my bed

[Refrão]

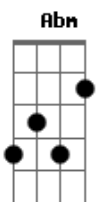

This is the end. So long my friends
 Stars always seem to fade it's a little too late to
 With bloodstained hands I make amends
 Stars always seem to fade

Oh, oh, oh There's nowhere to run
 Oh oh What have I done?

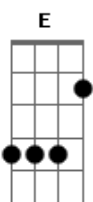

This is the end. So long my friends
 Stars always seem to fade it's a little too late to
 With bloodstained hands I make amends
 Stars always seem to fade
