

The Weeknd - Open Hearts

tom:
Gm

I can hear the wind blow, even through the window
I can hear the whisper, even with my ears closed
All the silver and gold only made my skin cold
I told myself
I would never get old
Then you pulled me in close
Oh-oh-oh-oh

Fallen angels call my name
But the things you say
Keeps me alive again

Where do I start
When I open my heart?
It's never easy falling in love again
Cover my scars
When I open my arms
It's nev?r easy falling in love again

Falling in, falling in love
It's n?ver easy falling in love again
Falling in, falling in love

Acordes

Eb
Falling in love again

Gm Trapped inside a limbo
Watching through a window
Of my soul
Suffering, I've been low
Then I see your halo
Oh-oh-oh-oh

Gm F
Fallen angels call my name
But the things you say
Keeps me alive for another day

Where do I start
When I open my heart?
It's never easy falling in love again
Cover my scars (Cover my scars)
When I open my arms (Open my arms)
It's never easy falling in love again (Oh-oh-oh-oh)
Falling in, falling in love
It's never easy falling in love again
Falling in, falling in love (Oh-oh-oh)
Falling in love again
