

The White Buffalo - Fantasy

Tom: A

m [Intro] Am

Tell me that you need me now

Send my doubts on out to sea

Let 'em sail away and drown in their own misery

Say it to me one more time

Engrave it there in my mind

Tell me that there ain't no love without you in my life

Do you mean it now?

There ain't no guarantee

Am I lost in you?

Are you lost in me?

Or is it a fantasy?

Come on destiny

Take me away from me

Let me prove that I can love any way you can feel

I don't believe in goodbyes

This is just another try

There's only you and me till the end of time

Go on and write your songs

Go get your therapy

Well that may work for you

But that don't work for me

I'll write you this love song

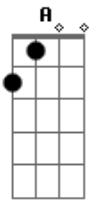

That no one else can sing

Now it's a part of you

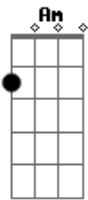

Now it's a part of me

Cause you are my fantasy
