Lying awake in my bed
When I heard voices in my head
Angry voices of the dead
They were in my mind

In my head, the voices would stay
I remember when they took ol' John away
Men in white coats came into his home
And gave him a jacket of his own

Cold eyes
In my body, gonna swell my brain
Cold eyes
Making me think that I'm going - - - Insane

Was it evil they bestowed?
From the heavens, were they from the lord?
This I tell you, I do not know
They didn't give me a sign

Terrified in my bed
Would they join me as the living dead?

Am B
Would they have me join them instead?
Well, I don't wanna die

Cold eyes
In my body, gonna swell my brain
Cold eyes
Making me think that I'm going - - - Insane

I couldn't keep it bottled in my brain
They all thought that I'd gone insane
Men in white coats came into my home
And gave me a jacket of my own
