

The White Buffalo - Redemption #2

Tom: A

m [Intro] Am

F
I killed many men with the greatest of ease

Am
Forgive me, forgive me, I'm down on my knees

F
I don't believe that there's a Heaven to go

Am
But I must get this evil out of my bones and my soul

C
Wash the blood from my hands, but my mind can't get clean

B Am
I must flush away what I've done, what I've seen

F
Well I'll hide when I will, my lament it just grow

Am
My wife and my children, they don't have to know

F
The fire and the fever I forever fight

Am
I must resist to dance in the devil's delight

C
Now all I need is a damn way to cope

B Am
There's no soap, no hope, no antidote

C G Am
Let the truth wash over me

C G Am
There's only one way to be free

C G Am F
All I really ever need
