

The White Buffalo - Story

Intro: Am Em F C
Am Em F G
I'll tell you a story
Am Em F G
Of how the past it lies, it dies
Am Em F
All of your regrets and all of your glory
Am Em F G
Oh, how the time it flies, flies
Bye she said, Well I leave at two
C Em Am G
Memories of old fade with the new
C Em Am G
Good times and bad we've had a few
C Em Am G
Help me to understand what can I do
I'll tell you a story
Am Em F
Of how the past it lies, it dies
Am Em F C
All of your regrets and all of your glory
Am Em F G
Oh, how the time it flies, flies
C Em Am G

Bye she said, Well I leave at two \frac{C}{C} Em \frac{Am}{C} We once stuck together but we lost the glue,
C Em Am G
we became one but now add up to two
C Em Am G
it was just never up to me or to you
  C Em Am Am
And she don't need me no more
C Em Am
Time will forget her I'm sure
F G Em F (2x)
Oh, I'll shut it down There they go,
       F
thoughts of her fleeting.
I wish that I could keep them repeating
I'll tell you a story
Am Em F
Of how the past it lies, it dies

Am Em F C

All of your regrets and all of your glory
Am Em F G
Oh, how the time it flies, flies by

Final: C Em Am Am
