 F C Love has no ending, just a resting place

Bb

But there's a place in the dark, in the black where the deals are made

F C
 I ain't your partner, I am your slave

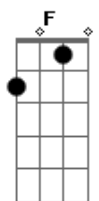

Everything will be alright by my side
 There ain't a word in my mind to describe
 You and I

There's a trail of tears and love no one can erase
 Love has no end, take it to the grave
 There's a place in the dark in the black where the demons are made
 But I ain't your partner, I am your slave

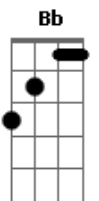

Keep your head down for now, cut the light
 Just 'til we get out of town, and I find
 Find a place to hide

'Til I find a place to hide
