

The White Stripes - The Same Boy You've Always Known

Tom: A

Verse 1:

You fell down of course got up of course and start it over forgot my name of course then you started to remember pretty tough to think about the beginning of december pretty tough to think about pretty tough to think about yeah yeah yeah pretty tough to think about

Verse 2: Chords are the same like verse 1 you're looking down again then you look me over we're laying down again on a blanket in the clover

 The same boy you've always known well i guess i havn't grown

kind of a bridge :

think of what the past did it could've lasted so put it in your basket hope you know a strong man who can lend you a hand lowering my casket

Verse 3:same as verse 1

I thought this is just a day and soon you'd be returning the coldest blue ocean water cannot stop my heart and mind from burning everyone who's in the knows says that's exactly how it goes and if there's anything good about me i'm the only one who knows
