Bridge 1: (palm mute Em)

There is a man, a certain man, and for the poor you may be sure, that he'll do all he can,
Who is this one? whose favorite son? just by his action has the traction, magnets on the run Who likes to smoke? enjoys a joke? and wouldn't get a bit upset if he were really broke?
With wealth and fame, he's still the same, I'll bet you five you're not alive if you don't know his name
