[Primeira Parte]

E
Tossed around like sea glass and you rounded out my edges
A B
I'll feel better when the headaches go away
E Dbm
I got a scar across my forehead, turning purple in the cold
A B
From a night at Shore Memorial
B
I was 16 and afraid
A B
Turned away, like I'm working baby face
E D A
Out of Mid-South in the 80's
E B
I kept a blade hidden in my wrist tape

[Refrão]

E A
I think I'm growing into someone you could trust
E Dm Dbm
I want to shoulder the weight until my back breaks
Abm A
I want to run until my lungs give up
Dbm E
If I could manage not to fuck this up
B
If I could manage not to fuck this up
A
I think enough is enough

[Segunda Parte]

E Dbm
Hidden in the tall grass in the naked light of day
A
I put my past-self in the ground
B
I've been dancing on the grave
E
I'm not the person that I was then
A Dbm
I'm tearing him away
A
I was bitter. I was careless
B
I was 19 and afraid

[Pré-Refrão]

A E
But you deserved more from me

A Gbm
I don't know why I would say those things
A E B
But you deserved more from me and I'm trying every day

[Refrão]

E A
I think I'm growing into someone you could trust
E Dm Dbm
I want to shoulder the weight until my back breaks
Abm A
I want to run until my lungs give up
Dbm E
If I could manage not to fuck this up
B
If I could manage not to fuck this up
A
I think enough is enough

[Ponte]

A
You left me walking in circles
Dbm B Gbm B
You were a shot in the dark
Abm Dbm B
You were the baby teeth I buried
Abm B
You were the sounds of distant cars

Dbm
You left me walking in circles
B A
You were a shot in the dark
Gb
You were the banner that says "No One"
Abm B
That I tattooed across my heart

A Dbm
You left me walking in circles
B A
You were a shot in the dark
Gb E
You're scattered like ashes across every song that I write
B
You're where the light pollution starts

[Refrão]
