

The Wonder Years - You In January

tom: G

Goddamn you look holy D

Hit from behind with light Gbm G

You're a painting of a saint D Gbm G

And I'm nervous, stumbling over my lines D Gbm G

When I tell you I love you

When we stare at Catalina D Gbm G

The city lost to the sea Em A

Carried out by the tides

You were the one thing I got right

(D Gbm G D Gbm G)

Goddamn you look holy D

Bathed in the January light Gbm G

On the floor of our new bedroom D Gbm

On the carpet with the window open wide G

When you tell me you love me D Gbm G

I can actually see it D Gbm G

Your breath frozen in the air Em A

Newborn droplets of ice

You were the one thing I got right

I'm measuring heartbeats and miles away G D

You held me together Bm

I used to burst and decay A

We got off the airplane G D

A couple of runaways Bm

I was hoping you'd stay Em

Could you stay? G

You were the obvious one D A G

From a taxi cab in Chelsea G

Em

Out past Salvation Mountain D A G

You were the holiest one G

From a walk along the highline Em

Out to Wicker Park in August G A

You were the obvious one Bm A G

From your Upper East Side dorm room Gbm

To the South West Marin Headlands Em

You smile into the sand A

Goddamn I hate leaving

(D)

Another early flight Gbm G

I ran the dishwasher this morning D Gbm

I wanted there to be clean plates for you tonight G

I've grown used to your perfume D Gbm G

It hangs in the morning light D Gbm G

Wake me up before you leave for work Em A

Kiss me goodbye

You were the one thing I got right

I'm measuring heartbeats and miles away G D

You held me together Bm

I used to burst and decay A

We got off the airplane G D

A couple of runaways Bm

I was hoping you'd stay Em

Could you stay? G

I'm measuring heartbeats and miles away G D

You held me together Bm

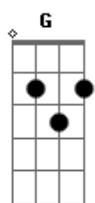

I used to burst and decay A

We got off the airplane G D

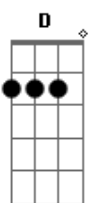

A couple of runaways Bm

I'm glad that you stayed G
