

The Wytches - Track 13

tom:

Intro: Am Am Am Am

Am G F C
In her sunshine blouse

Am F G G C
She prefers to keep the desperate men out

Am F
And they stay far away

C G
And then she'll feel ok

F G Am Am Am Am
Cause the smile on her face is poison

Am G F C
In her rotary chair

Am G F C
She's spinning too fast as it spits out her hair

Am F
And she's well known

C G F G Am
For her tendencies grown, as the number on the scales shivers

( Am Am )

Dm
And we fight like the crows

C
Shoulders, elbows, are covered in blows

From the farm girls last perge

Dm
Between selling me your love all passing

C
Well I fell with no pain

E

But it hurts just the same

Am G F C
Annabelle's in the rain

Am G F C
Reading those dreams, for the number or name

Am F C G
Well she comes across like an animal lost

F G Am Am Am Am
But her cage is the cleanest around

Am G F C
And her parents hold her down in the night

Am G F C
Before closing her eyes, she said everything's fine

Am F C G
When she next arrives, with her conscience divine

F G Am
And a smile on her face artificial

F G Am Am Am
Yes the smile on your face artificial

Dm
Well I search through her paths

Running family since birth

C
And I feel like a one

Bury body in dirt

Dm
On my birthday I scream

Every day's a bad dream

C
Or a story to sell

E Am
Stop reading me? annabelle
