

The Young Veins - Die Tonight

```
Tom: A
Is "young" a word for dumb;
a word for fun?
 A D E D A
like it's our job to lose our minds
E A D
Every night.
             Bm G
But if I were to die, tonight;
    D E
Would you cry, or deny,

Gbm Db7

My place in your life.
D Db
I'm aware that you're scared of my heart
But it's there
Is "young" a word for dumb;
        D
a word for fun?
  A D E D A
We have the time of our lives, every night,
      D A D
```

```
like it's our job to lose our minds
E A D
Every night.
It's the same, go to sleep with our blame.

D

E

And the shame is enough
 Gbm Db7
To seperate us
 D
But we can't help ourselves.

D Gbm Bm A G Gbm

We're in love and it really hurts when it's wrong
Is "young" a word for dumb;
a word for fun?
 A D E D A
like it's our job to lose our minds
\mathsf{E} \quad \mathsf{A} \quad \mathsf{D} \quad \bar{\mathsf{A}} \quad \mathsf{E} \qquad \mathsf{G} \quad \mathsf{A} \quad \mathsf{E}
And it's...every night, we have the time, D A E G A E
Like it's our job, to lose our minds...
Every night!
D A E x3
```

Acordes

