We fall in love, he does the most

But I question it all 'cause I'm still broken

He gets tired, then he leaves

Then I cry and I repeat

Fall in love again, fuck it up again

This does the affect I cry

Better being friends to avoid the pain

I say I'm okay, I'm not

It's always the same

It's like I'm lookin' for someone to save me

Someone to blame

So I can cry and ask you: Why'd you break me?

I lie and say I didn't come broken

I lie and say you did it

Gbm < b>A

I lie and say I didn't come broken

We fall in love, I do the most

You question it all 'cause you still broken

I give you space, let you breathe

Flip it on me then it repeats

I messed it up again, pissed you off again

Gave you love, this what I got

You cuss me out again, acting out again

Think it's okay, well it's not

It's always the same

It's like I'm lookin' for someone to save me

Someone to blame

So I can cry and ask you: Why'd you break me?

I lie and say I didn't come broken

I lie and say you did it

I lie and say I didn't come broken
