 No, I didn't see this one coming

 I can't say you didn't tell me so

 I can't say you didn't warn me
 (chorus-1)

Em G
 I can't take the pain of knowing that I left You
 Em G
 I can't bear the shame of knowing I was wrong
 Em G
 But I'll take the blame for everything that I've done

/ (vs.2)

/ / /
 G C G
 I was there when they accused you
 G C G
 But I guess I was too afraid
 G C G
 Not just once and not just twice
 G C G
 But three times I denied your name

(chorus-1)

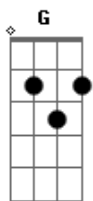

(bridge)

Em G
 I never thought I'd get even a second chance
 Em G
 But you've given that and so much more

 And then for every time I ever did deny
 Em G D
 You ask if I love you, You know I do, Lord

 So I'm off to follow in your steps
 G C G
 It won't be easy, it's safe to say
 G C G
 There are only two roads I can walk on down
 G C G
 The road less traveled is the one you paved
 (chorus-1)
 (chorus-2)

Em G
 Lord, You took the pain even though I left You
 Em G
 And You took the shame and You made it all Your own
 Em G
 Why'd You take the blame for everything that I've done?
 Em
 Lord, You took the pain
 C G
 You and You alone, You and You alone
 ~ = Hold note
 = Bend note
