

Third Day - Rise Up

```
Intro: Dbm Ab E B A E Ab
Well, I was there when you were torn apart
Now a piece of you is gone
Somehow you wish that you could only find
          В
A little strength to carry on
You've tried so hard to make it on your own
That your heart has come undone
So I am here to prove that I alone
Have the power to overcome
(Refrão):
                 В
Don't let your heart be troubled
This world will never keep you down
E B
It will never keep you down
So rise up, my friend
  Dbm
No, this will never be the end
So rise up, my friend
```
