

Third Day - She Sing In Riddles

Tom: G

(intro 2x) G D C D G

The voice of an Angel, I cannot tell
 Light of darkness, Heaven or Hell
 The Smile of a believer, wedged and bound
 Friend or deceiver, the truth or a lie

(refrão)

She sings in riddles, she sings in rhymes
 Say everything and nothing, at the same time
 Still there's something to lose my mind
 She sings in riddles, she sings in rhymes

Words of a poet, in perfect time

With questions and answers

Every verse, every line

But I smile and I wonder, is there a song

I'm not always silent
 Is it right, is it wrong

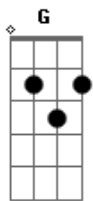

She sings in riddles, she sings in rhymes
 Say everything and nothing, at the same time
 Still there's something to lose my mind
 She sings in riddles, she sings in rhymes

(lead break) D G D C D G G D C D G

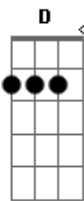

She sings in riddles, she sings in rhymes
 Say everything and nothing, at the same time
 Still there's something to lose my mind
 She sings in riddles, she sings in rhymes
 She sings in riddles, she sings in rhymes
 She sings in riddles, she sings in rhymes

(instrumental) D G D C D G
