Chorus

Breakdown

when he says i coming for you then that wah part is like this

Intro: This repeats for a decent bit. Rather than use up an entire staff of 1-3-1-3, just listen to the song and play it however long you think sounds right. This tab is here for ~you~ to know how to play ~their~ song, but nobody ever said you have to do it exactly how they do.

Verse : Nothing too complex about this. Basically a continuation off the intro riff with an F barre chord added in after every vocal line. At the end of the verse, the chords pull up into the chorus.

Chorus : Basically, Ab barre to Eb barre. Nothing too horribly complex involved there. In order to get that bit of a change in the guitar, however, you should form up x6689x to x6688x. That, basically, is the chordal equivalent of what's going on there. If you're a real stickler about it, just play 9-8 on the B string.

Breakdown : D#major scale. Just go wild, as far as that's concerned. Nothing's holding you back, because I can almost guarantee Tony will go crazy with this breakdown when they play it live. If you don't have the D#major scale in your pocket all the time, which I doubt many of you do, here's a quick reference.

D#major scale: Eb - F - G - Ab - Bb - C - D - Eb

well there you go enjoy it.

LYRICS:

I am the conqueror

I taste your scent in the wind
 Set my sail but then you sink my boat
 So I begin to swim
 Bash my foes until I win
 Lances smash across my chest
 That's my quest you wonder why
 I will never die
 The only thing I bleed for is you
 Oceans of love
 I crossed them for you
 In the Matrix of your garden
 I find you in bloom
 Now that you found me
 No one's gonna get around me
 I'm coming for you
 Coming for you
 Coming for you (can we get this all together)
 Coming for you (can we get this all together)
 Nothing I cannot do
 There is nothing I wouldn't do for you
 And you put me all through the worst
 I am cursed with a light that's made to burn
 That's where I shine
 And now you'll be mine
 Oceans of love
 I've crossed them for you
 In the matrix of your garden
 I beg your pardon
 Now that I've hardened
 No one's gonna get around me
 Coming for you (can we get this all together)
 I'm coming for you (can we get this all together)
 Coming for you (can we get this all together)
 Coming for you (can we get this all together)
 I am the conqueror
 Byzantine mosaic in the heat
 I am cursed, through the worst
 With a life that's made to burn
 That's where I shine, where I shine now
 And you, you, you, you, you
 Are mine, mine, mine, mine, mine
 Love
 I've crossed them for you
 In the Matrix of your garden
 I find you in bloom
 And now that I've found you
 No one's gonna get around me
 You (can we get this all together)
 I'm coming for you (can we get this all together)
 Coming for you (can we get this all together)
 Coming for you (can we get this all together)
 I am the conqueror
 I am the conqueror
 I am the conqueror
 I am the conqueror
 I am the conqueror
 Am the conqueror
