

Third Eye Blind - Faster

Tom: C

Tabbed by: Shawn Klapproth
Tuning: EADGBE
email: S

I was tired of having to change the tuning on my guitar to play this song so I wrote it in standard tuning, it's not perfect, but it works nice

Play through the verse

Horny and burnt out now is how it always ends for me yeah
Chemicals wear me down in your summertime bacchanalian
I saw you go faster
Then the morning comes
She walks away like a lady
It's always the fallen ones
I think are always gonna to save me

Prechorus

I saw you go

1st Chorus

whoooooa
I wanna get off one time and not apologize
whoooooa
You gotta steal the time from a life that's passing by

In bed she flexes her knees to try and abate the feeling
She mouths the words please to the poster on the ceiling
I saw you go

prechorus type part for the second verse

She stares at him so madly
She's got the nerve to say
She wants to fuck that boy so badly

Prechorus

I saw you go faster

2nd Chorus

Whoooooa
I wanna get off one time and not apologize
Whoooooa
You gotta steal the time from a life that's passing by
I want to get off one time and look you in the eyes
I want to get off one time, get off one time

I was hoping you would be waiting there for me lately

I was hoping you would be waiting there for me lately
But you're not the kind who would be waiting, not for anybody You're not the kind of girl who would be waiting for anybody not even me

oooooooo
Just one time
oooooooo
I could go off right now

Final Chorus

whoaaa
I want to get off one time and not apologize
whoaaa
You got to steal the time from a life that's passing by
