

This Wild Life - 405

tom:

Intro: D A Gbm A
D A Gbm A

[Verse 1]

D A
I'm jealous of the life you're living
Gbm E
I never made the best decisions
D A
I learn the hard way or not at all
Gbm E
I wouldn't answer when you called

D A
I never know where I am heading
Gbm E
I feel like there's something missing
D A Gbm
I made my choice and found my voice
E
I never know what's down this road

[Chorus]

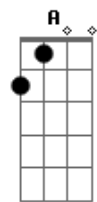

D A
Sometimes when I drive
Gbm E
Southbound windows down the 405
D A Gbm
The summer air, we're singing loud
E
We can take this road almost anywhere

D A Gbm
And sometimes, yeah, I'm fine
E
I'm Northbound hoping that I'll be alright
D A Gbm
I need you here right by my side
E
I'm learning how to really live my life

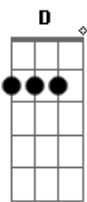

(D A Gbm E)
(Bm Dbm Gbm E)

I'm moving slower now than ever
Gbm E
I try to hold it all together
D A Gbm
My eyes are wide yet my mind is tired
E

I fall asleep in between your lines

D A Gbm
I wonder, was it worth this last year?

E
If things get worse will you still be here?
D A Gbm
I made my choice and found my voice

E
Will you still be here if I go?

[Chorus]

D A Gbm
Sometimes when I drive

E
Southbound windows down the 405
D A Gbm
The summer air, we're singing loud

E
We can take this road almost anywhere

D A Gbm
And sometimes, yeah, I'm fine

E
I'm Northbound hoping that I'll be alright

D A Gbm
I need you here right by my side

E
I'm learning how to really live my life
