Intro: Dbm Abm A Gbm Ab

Years of silence without any hope

For life has seemed to forget me

No wasted tears, only grief for the past

Though I long for fortune to come

Falling down

Falling away from the underground

Fade away

Searching for something to hide astray

Kneeling down

Into denial for what's to come

Or what has been before

Take me back home

Bring me to where all ends

Falling down

Falling away from the underground

Fade away

Searching for something to hide astray

Kneeling down

Into denial for what's to come

Or what has been before

Take me back home

Bring me to where all ends
