

Tim Be Told - Me To You

tom:

Here we are again

It doesn't matter if it's now or then

You look in my direction

And stir up my affection

And then I'm yours

If I could say it now

I'd shout it from the roof clear and loud

The stars would even hear me

Til my lungs were weary

So here I go

You need to know

If I believe in me and you

It's running in my mind

I'm running out of time to say I do

Oh I tried

I Tried to follow every rule

Went looking for a sign

But every single line led me to you

Breathe in, breathe out

No time for worry and no time for doubt

With everything I am

I'll give you all I can

Til there's no more

Give this a chance

It's not just another song and dance

I promise you forever

For worse or maybe better

But I'm not sure

You need to know

If I believe in me and you

It's running in my mind

I'm running out of time to say I do

Oh I tried

I Tried to follow every rule

Went looking for a sign

But every single line led me to you

Thought I was through with that

But I keep looking back

Was searching up and down

But it was you I found

No matter what I do it always leads to you

Some things you never find

But you were there this time

I felt a little rush

And then our fingers touched

Everything I knew led me to you

You need to know

If I believe in me and you

It's running in my mind

I'm running out of time to say I do

Oh I tried

I Tried to follow every rule

Went looking for a sign

But every single line led me to you

Went looking for a sign

But every single line led me to you
