

Tin Man Falls - Have To Leave

tom:

D

[Primeira Parte]

Everyday I sit and drink my coffee
 Driven forward by what I cannot say and I
 I seem so bound to struggle that I wonder if it's just my way
 And you don't like it
 When I'm gone
 And I don't like just to
 Feel so wrong
 So I ask myself
 Why do we stay?
 And sure we can just
 Follow the love
 But we can't seem to find where it's gone
 So why do we say that it works?

[Refrão]

Oh, and I bleed
 So rain down on me
 I still can hear you calling
 And I know that you bleed
 But there's something that I need
 And it's not your love

And I know it'll fuck me up
 But I have to leave

[Segunda Parte]

Everyday I sit and drink my coffee
 Holdin' onto three words you don't say
 Our love is fading into memory
 Oh your touch, it doesn't feel the same
 And if you just like it when I'm gone
 Then why am I still just holding on
 Oh, I've known that I should turn away
 So if you're someone that I used to know then
 Why don't I leave, why don't I go
 We're falling but hope gets in the way

[Refrão]

Oh, and I bleed
 So rain down on me
 I still can hear you calling
 And I know that you bleed
 But there's something that I need
 And it's not your love
 And I know it'll fuck me up
 But I have to leave
