

Tobias Forge - House Of Affection

Tom: G

Intro: Bm A Em Bm A Em

Unless you're coming on your own

There is more than you to look

Don't fake the trembling of your feet

If your intentions are deceit

Unless you're coming on your own,girl

He doesn't even wanna know

Who you are

Don't come knocking the door to the house of affection

Unless you're coming on your own

Don't come knocking the door to the house of affection

I see,you're coming for your own sake

Another heart will come in use

You carved it up and let it bleed

And it's your ego that you feed

Unless you're coming on your own,boy

She doesn't even wanna know

What might have been

Don't come knocking the door to the house of affection

Unless you're coming on your own

Don't come knocking the door to the house of affection

Unless you're coming on your own

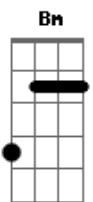

Don't come knocking the door to the house of affection

Unless you're coming on your own
