

Tom Cardy - All The Stupid Things I've Ever Done

tom:
 It's a quarter to nine
 And it's past my bedtime
 But I need a little help to fall asleep
 With my glass of warm milk
 I am ready for the guilt
 When I'm done counting sheep
 I close my eyes, and I think of All the stupid things I've ever done
 Gonna think of every embarrassing thing

I've ever done
 I'm gonna think of all the stupid things
 I've ever done
 Even the things I did not do
 I can play out and go through How embarrassing it would be
 And feel the shame hypothetically
 And let the guilt rock me to sleep
 As if I'd actually done that stupid thing
 - Goodnight every stupid thing I've ever done!
 - Goodnight Tom!
