

Tom Odell - Half As Good As You

tom:

Intro: C Dm Em Am
F C Dm

[Parte 1]

C Dm Em
I'm sick to death of eating breakfast on my own
F C Dm
Starting out my daily blues
(Hmmm)

C Dm Em
I'm sick to death of spilling coffee on my phone
(Oooh)

F C Dm
Scrolling through pictures of you
F G C
I'd like to say that maybe we could work it out
F G C
But I know that it's no use

Dm G C C Am
If I ever find anyone half as good as you
Dm G C
I think maybe that would do
(Oooh)

[Parte 2]

C Dm Em
I kissed a stranger in the hallway late last night
F Em Dm C
He was wearing purple shoes
C Dm Em
I asked him when he kissed me, could he close his eyes?

F Em Dm
But he just looked at me confused
F G C C7
And people say my expectations are too high
F G C C7
But I'm not asking for the moon

Dm G C C Am
If I ever find anyone half as good as you
Dm G Am
I think maybe that would do
Dm G C C Am

If I ever find anyone half as good as you
Dm G C
I think maybe that would do

[Ponte]

Dm G
Oh, I'm so sick of laying here
So sick of counting tears
C Em F
Comparing everyone to you
Oh, oh
Dm Am
Oh, I'm so sick of waiting here
So frustrated
E
My suspicions are you're laying there and thinking of me too

[Parte 3]

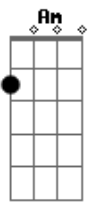

C Dm Em
I learned the lyrics yesterday to all your songs
F Em Dm
There was one I couldn't do
C Dm
I think the lyric went
Em
"You'll miss me when I'm gone"
F Em Dm
But the chords, I was confused
F G C
I'd ask you 'round and you could tell me where I'm wrong
F G C C7
But then I know you'd just refuse
Refuse

[Hook]

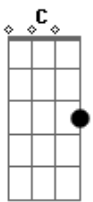

Dm G C C Am
If I ever find anyone half as good as you
Dm G Am
I think maybe that would do
Oooh

Dm G C C Am
If I ever find anyone half as good as you
Dm G C
I think maybe that would do
