

Tom Waits - Cemetery Polka

tom:
[Primeira Parte]
Uncle Vernon, Uncle Vernon
Inde-pend-ent as a hog on ice
He's a big-shot, down there at the slaughterhouse
Plays ac-cordion for Mis-ter Weiss

[Segunda Parte]

Uncle Biltmore, and Uncle William
Made a million during World War II
But they're tightwads, and they're cheapskates
And they'll never give a dime to you

Interlude

(Ab)

[Terceira Parte]

Auntie Mame has gone in-sane; she lives
In the doorway of an old ho-tel
And the radio, is playing opera
All she ever says is; "go to Hell"

[Quarta Parte]

Uncle Violet, flew as pilot
And there ain't no pretty girls in France

Now he runs a tiny little bookie joint
They say he never keeps it in his pants

[Quinta Parte]

Uncle Bill will never leave a will
And the tumour is as big as an egg
Has a mistress; she's Puerto Rican
And I heard she has a woo-den leg

Interlude

(Ab)

[Sexta Parte]

Uncle Phil can't live without his pills
He has emphy-sema and he's almost blind
And we must find out where the money is
Get it now, before he loses his mind

[Verso 7]

Uncle Vernon, Uncle Vernon
Inde-pend-ent as a hog on ice
He's a big-shot, down there at the slaughterhouse
Plays ac-cordion for Mis-ter Weiss
