Tom: C

Tabbed by: Jake Chambers
Email:

Tuning: STANDARD

Intro: Listen to recording for timing.

And I've been drinking from a broken cup

Two pair of pants and a mohair vest

I'm full of burbon; I can't stand up

CHORUS CHORDS:

Am Em B7

VERSE CHORDS:

Em B7

Em

Edna Millon in a drop dead suit

B7

Dutch pink in a downtown train

Two dollar pistol, but the gun won't shoot

Em

I'm in the corner in the pouring rain

16 men on a deadman's chest

B7

Am

Em

Hey little bird, fly away home

B7

Em

Your house is on fire; your children are alone

Am

Em

Hey little bird, fly away home

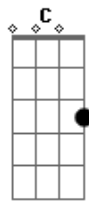

B7

Em

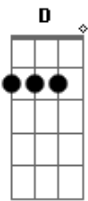

Your house is on fire; your children are alone

The SOLO and Ribot's licks over the verses are all playing off of the INTRO RIFF. With it is all about tone. Move the riff up the fretboard to try to get some of the licks.
