Tom Waits - Part You Throw Away

Tom: F Dm The bone must go Dm A Dm The wish can stay Dm Α BbGADmThe kiss don't know what the lips will say You dance real slow A Dm You wreck it down Bb G Dm Dm Dm Α Α You walk away, then you turn around And remember to never Dm Bb Dm A Dm Mind ins_tead What did that old blonde gal say? A Dm That is the part... Dm A Dm You throw a way Bb Dm Dm Α I want that beggars eyes Bb A Dm A winning horse Dm A Dm Bb G A Dm Gone just like matches A tidy Mexican divorce A G From a closed down cabaret Bb Α Dm St. Mary's prayers houdini's Hands Dm In a Portuguese Saloon A Dm A Dm A fly is a circling And a Barman who always Dm A Dm Un_der_stands BbDmaround The room Dm Bb Dm Α Will you loose the flowers hold on to the vase Dm A Dm Will you wipe all those teardrops away from your face For that is the part Bb Dm A Dm You throw a__way I can't help thinking as I close the door Dm Dm Α Dm Α I have done all of this Ah, that is the part A G A Dm A Dm You throw a__way Many times before

Acordes

Bb Forget I've hurt you put stones in your bed Well all of your letters burned up in the fire Time is just memory mixed in with Desire That's not the road it is only the map I say Bb You'll soon forget the tune that you play