

Tom Walker - Angels

Tom: C 'Cause heaven seems to be so forgiving Lost hope, keeping dreams afloat Save praise for a better man I stand just a man on the tight rope No need for your touching hands Got faith but I'll never know There's nothing to understand See wings when I look through my telescope I'm one with the lost and damned It's a long road, when you're on your own It's a long road when you're on your own Take care of my broken soul Take care of your broken soul There must be There must be There must be There must be angels Guiding the way I've drank all the remedies There must be angels Too young for these memories Saving our grace Swing low, bitter melodies There must be heaven False hope from the teeth of the enemy For people who stray It's a long road, when you're on your own There must be heaven Take care of my broken soul In this hell that I'm living There must be 'Cause heaven seems to be forgiving So don't give up, I There must be angels Guiding the way Won't give up, no Don't give up, I There must be angels Dm Saving our grace There must be angels There must be angels There must be heaven For people who stray There must be heaven In this hell that I'm living There must be heaven 'Cause heaven seems to be so forgiving In this hell that I'm living 'Cause heaven seems to be forgiving No, don't give up, I So don't give up, I Won't give up, no Don't give up, I Won't give up, no Don't give up, I Won't give up Dm There must be angels There must be angels There must be angels There must be angels There must be heaven There must be heaven In this hell that I'm living In this hell that I'm living
