

Tori Kelly - Two Places

Tom: B

m

These days I keep finding myself caught in between Am I awake or am I walking in my sleep
Just never know what I'll be feeling today
Happy or sad, it could go either way
One minute I'll be fine then I don't know how to feel

I'm in between the two
Standing still and on the run
Don't know what to do, I'm in two places at once
I feel like the moon tryna stay up for the sun
Heart is so confused
Cause it's two places at once
I'm always spinning back and forth
I'm up and down
My head's all over the place and I'm stuck on the ground
Just look at the birds
They only know how to fly
Up in the clouds they never worry like I do
One hand holds on to hope

The other's filled with doubt

I'm in between the two
Standing still and on the run
Don't know what to do, I'm in two places at once
I feel like the moon tryna stay up for the sun
Heart is so confused
Cause it's two places at once
The same things that make me cry
Are the same things that make me smile
The same things that comfort me
Are keeping me up at night
I must be going numb
Maybe it's all because
I'm feeling everything and I feel it all at once
I'm in between the two
Standing still and on the run
Two places at once
Heart is so confused
Cause it's two places
My heart is two places at once
Two places at once
