

Tove Lo - Thousand Miles

Tom: D

(com acordes na forma de Capostrate na 2ª casa C)

Am Too far away to feel you But I can't forget your skin.
 Am Wonder what you're up to What state of mind you're in.
 F Are you thinking 'bout the last time Your lips all over me.
 Am 'Cause I'd play it in a rewind Where you are I wanna be.
 Am Wanna fly to you like birds do Straight across the world.
 Am My body, your hands, uh And I'm missing every word.
 F You are mine, yeah you say so When you call me late nights.
 Am But I wonder how should I know You're in love enough to fight.

Am Fading away, when you're drunk and alone.
 G Can't see my face in your heart anymore.
 Am Telling yourself you don't feel like before.

And that's when I run All of these thousand miles.
 F That's when I run All of these thousand miles To get you back.
 F Coming for you baby, I'm coming now.
 F That's when I run All of these thousand miles To get you back.
 Am Wrapped around your fingers Let you dive into my low
 Am You remember all my triggers The physical and stuff
 F Back and forth forever Is it how it's gonna be?
 Am Even when we're not together Will you stay with me?

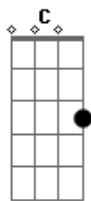

Am Fading away, when you're drunk and alone.
 G Can't see my face in your heart anymore.
 Am Telling yourself you don't feel like before.
 F And that's when I run All of these thousand miles.
 F That's when I run All of these thousand miles To get you back.
 F Coming for you baby, I'm coming now.
 F That's when I run All of these thousand miles To get you back.
 F All of these, all of these thousand miles To get you back.
 Am All of these, all of these thousand miles.
 F All of these, all of these thousand miles To get you back.
 Am All of these, all of these thousand miles.

G And that's when I run All of these thousand miles.
 F That's when I run All of these thousand miles To get you back.
 F Coming for you baby, I'm coming now.
 F That's when I run All of these thousand miles To get you back.
 F All of these, all of these thousand miles To get you back.
 Am All of these, all of these thousand miles.
 F All of these, all of these thousand miles To get you back.
 Am All of these, all of these thousand miles.
