If you [F]knew that you would [C]find a truth
Intro: Dm Bb F C
                                                                   That [Dm]brings a pain, that [Bb]can't be soothed
                       (2x)
                                                                   Would you [F]change? [C]
                                                                                                 Would you [Dm]change?
Verse 1:
                                                                 [Chorus]
 If you [F]knew that you [C]would die today
                                                                 Bridge:
  And you [Dm]saw the face of [Bb]God and love
                                                                   [A]Are you so upright, you can't be [Dm]bent?
 Would you [F]change? [C]
                                                          [Bb]
                                                                   If it [C]comes to blows,
                                Would you [Dm]change?
                                                                   [A]Are you so sure you [Awon't be [Dm]crawling?
Verse 2:
  If you [F]knew that love can [C]break you heart
                                                                   If [C]not for the good, why risk [Gm]falling?
  When you're [Dm]down so low, you [Bb]can not fall
                                                                   Why risk [C]falling?
  Would you [F]change? [C]
                                Would you [Dm]change?
                                                                Verse 5:
                                                          [Bb]
                                                                   If [F]everything you [C]think you know [Dm]Makes your life un[Bb]-bearable
Chorus:
  [Gm]How bad, how good, does it need to [F]get?
                                                     [C]
(Riff)
                                                                   Would you [F]change? [C]
                                                                                                 Would you [Dm]change?
  [Gm]How many losses, how much re[F]-gret?
(Riff)
                                                                   If [F]you've broken [C]every rule and vow
                                                                   And [Dm]hard times come to [Bb]bring you down
  [Gm]What chain reaction would cause an [F]effect?
(Riff)
                                                                   Would you [F]change? [C]
                                                                                                 Would you [Dm]change?
  [Gm]Makes you turn around,
                             [C] Makes you try to explain,
                                                                Verse 7:
[Bb]
                                                                   If you [F]knew that you [C]would die today
                                                                   If you [F]saw the face of [C]God and love
 Makes you forgive and forget, [Gm]
                                        Makes you cha-a-a-nge.
                                                                                                                [Dm]
  [Dm] [Bb] Makes you [F]change.
