[Primeira Parte]

G
Thought you found the holy one

They take a little, she takes none
Em
It's just a front after all

Oh how easy do they fall?
C
One by one and over again
They shed a little of their skin
Am
First you mingle, then you dance

Pull it to a safe distance
G
It pours outside and need a ride
Wish you hadn't gone inside
Em
Fumble for the sidehand door

You don't want to stay no more
C
The handle is broke, the light is low

Brake too late and off it goes
Am
Falling forward from the edge

Try to remember the words you read
```

[Refrão]

```
C            Em
Don't want to know
     G               D
You try too hard they said
                  C    Em   G    D
But you never want to go
C        Em
Are your feet cold?
G                 D
Spread your ashes all-
              C    Em  G   D
All across the snow
```

[Segunda Parte]

G
All the lights are shining through

Hit you when you try to move
Em
Know the ending, know the start

Know the place where it falls apart
C
The Red herring isn't fooling you
```

```
Tricked you last time, before you knew
Am
Barreling towards the bitter end

The climax comes, you lose a friend
G
Growing up and dressing down

Learn the truth and shut your mouth
Em
It's not all what your thought it'd be
Cuts your heart so gradually
Sew it up, snip the thread

Dry the tears they make you shed
Am
Hold the chair, slip the noose

Never forget who cut you loose
```

A little everyday
