

Traveling Wilburys - Tweeter And The Monkey Man

tom:

Intro: Am D Am G

[Riff Intro]

Am D Am

Am Tweeter and the monkey man were hard up for cash
F They stayed up all night selling cocaine and hash
G To an undercover cop who had a sister named jan
F For reasons unexplained she loved the monkey man

Am Tweeter was a boy scout before she went to vietnam
F And found out the hard way nobody gives a damn
G They knew that they found freedom just across the jersey line
F So they hopped into a stolen car took highway 99

Am Em And the walls came down all the way to hell
D Never saw them when theyre standing
Am Never saw them when they fell

(play before going into the next verse)

D Am D Am

Am The undercover cop never liked the monkey man
F Even back in childhood he wanted to see him in the can
G Jan got married at fourteen to a rackateer named bill
F She made secret calls to the monkey man from a mansion on the hill

Am It was out on thunder road - tweeter at the wheel
F They crashed into paradise - they could hear them tires squeal
G The undercover cop pulled up and said everyone of yours a liar
F If you dont surrender now its gonna go down to the wire

Am Em And the walls came down all the way to hell
D Never saw them when theyre standing
Am Never saw them when they fell

( D Am D Am )

Am An ambulance rolled up - a state trooper close behind
F Tweeter took his gun away and messed up his mind
G The undercover cop was left tied up to a tree
F Near the souvenir stand by the old abandoned factory

Am G Next day the undercover cop was hot in pursuit
F He was taking the whole thing personal, He didnt care about the loot

G Jan had told him many times it was you to me who taught
F In jersey anythings legal as long as you dont get caught

Am Em And the walls came down all the way to hell
D Never saw them when theyre standing
Am Never saw them when they fell

( D Am D Am )

Am G Someplace by rahway prison they ran out of gas
F The undercover cop had cornered them said boy, you didnt Think that this could last

G Jan jumped out of bed said theres someplace I gotta go
F She took a gun out of the drawer and said its best if you dont know

Am G The undercover cop was found face down in a field
F The monkey man was on the river bridge using tweeter as a shield

G Jan said to the monkey man Im not fooled by tweeters curl
F I knew him long before he ever became a jersey girl

Am Em And the walls came down all the way to hell
D Never saw them when theyre standing
Am Never saw them when they fell

( D Am D Am )

Am G Now the town of jersey city is quieting down again
F Im sitting in a gambling club called the lions den
G The tv set been blown up, every bit of it is gone
F Ever since the nightly news show that the monkey man was on

Am G I guess Ill to to florida and get myself some sun
F There aint no more opportunity here, everythings been done
G Sometime I think of tweeter, sometime I think of jan
F Sometime I dont think about nothing but the monkey man

Am Em And the walls came down all the way to hell
D Never saw them when theyre standing
Am Never saw them when they fell

[Final] Am D Am

Acordes

