

Triskell - Empty Shack

Tom: G

And then when the rain
Must go away
I was there in the ancient hall
And then when the rain
Must go away
I was there in the sunlight drifting

And then when the tides
Must have a change
I was there with the darkest cloud
And then when the tides
Must come again
We were calmly seeking refuge

I was standing alone in the darkness
Crying out when I went mad
Feeling my soul become magic

And then when the wind
Must blow away
I was there in an empty shack
And then wehn the wind
Must blow my mind
I was feeling the whole world embrace me

I was standing alone in the darkness
Crying out when I went mad
Feeling my soul become magic

Yeah my mind, an empty shack
Yeah my mind, an empty shack
And I was there, yeah yeah, yeah

I was standing alone in the darkness
Crying out when I went mad
