A G D G D
Living's like a jigsaw, and the farther in you go
G D Em A
If you're missing pieces, never really know
A G D G D
If you're ticking like a time piece, on which you can't rely
G D Em A
Wonder why you wind it when you're running out of time

G D
Sometimes there's a danger of choking on the parts
G Bm Bm A G
No one gave a warning to breaking of your heart
G D A G
Pick up all the pieces and go back to the start
Gm D A Bm
Never losing, only using all your moving parts
G C D
All your moving parts

A G D G A
Living's s'posed to kill you, but it shouldn't feel like dying
G D Em A
Loving's s'posed to fill you, but it spills you like you're wine
A G D G D
And all the paper people, wandering above
G D Em A
Wondering who made them and who's gonna cut them up

G D
Sometimes there's a danger of choking on the parts
G Bm Bm A G

No one gave a warning to breaking of your heart
G D A G
Pick up all the pieces and go back to the start

Never losing, only using all your moving parts
G C D
All your moving parts
(G D G Bm A G)
(G D A G)
(Gm D A Bm)
(G C D)

A G D G A
And even in the morning, when the sun's behind the clouds
G D Em A
In the state you're born in, in the state that you're in now
(Massachusetts)
A G D G D
Even if the roof is leaking, it's still above your head
G D Em A
Just remember two words that the two birds never said

G D
Sometimes there's a danger of choking on the parts
G Bm Bm A G
