Tuba Skinny - I get the blues

Tom: C

```
                    C                              A
A7
Baby, I'm so blue,       so blue 'bout you,       sweet baby
             D7                              C      G7
'Cause your lovin' is so soft,        and warm
               C                               A            A7
Then I get the blues,      deep down in my heart,    sweet babe
             D7                                          G7
'Cause I'm a many miles from your lovin'      and home
             C                                  C7
Now, listen here, sweet baby,        please listen to me
                   F7                        Eb              B7
I know that your lovin'         is the best that I ever seen
        C                            A               A7
Then I get so blue,      so blue 'bout you, sweet baby
         D7                   Em7          C       G7
```

'Cause your lovin' is so   soft...and warm

```
          C                                A             A7
Baby, I'm so blue,       so blue 'bout you,       sweet baby
               D7                                 C      G7
'Cause your lovin' is so soft,        and warm
               C                                  A            A7
Then I get the blues,      deep down in my heart,    sweet babe
             D7                                            G7
'Cause I'm a many miles from your lovin'      and home
               C                                          C7
Now, listen here, sweet baby,           I really can't understand
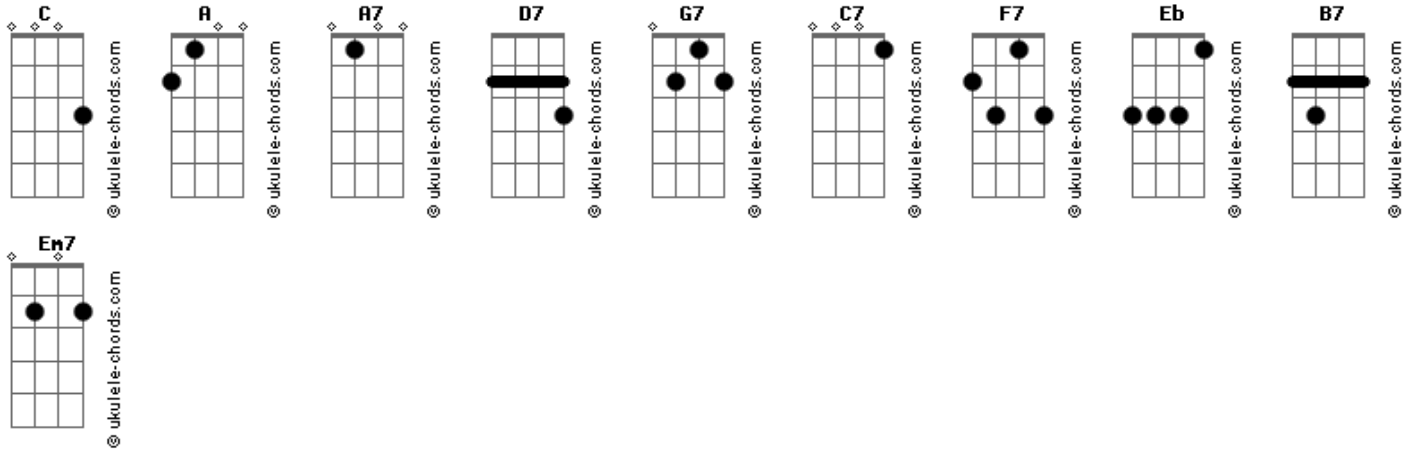
                     F7               Eb               B7
Thinkin' 'bout your lovin',       mixed with some other man
          C                              A           A7
Then I get so blue,      so blue 'bout you, sweet baby
          D7                        Em7                        C  G7
C
'Cause your lovin'  is ...so   soft  ...   and  ...   warm
```

Acordes



Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br