

Twenty One Pilots - Isle Of Flightless Birds

Tom: G
Intro: Em D G D Am B (2x)
Em Am G B (4x)

Em Am G B
Now is the climax to the story
Em Am G B
That gives the demons and angels purpose
Em Am G B
They fly around while we are walking
Em Am G B C
And mold our emotions just to please them

D Em
I am cold, can you hear
G B C
I will fly, with no hope, no fear
D Em
And the ground, taunts my wings
G D
Plummet as I sing, plummet as I sing

( Em Am G B )
( Em Am G )

B Em
All we are is an isle of flightless birds
Am G
We find our worth in giving birth and stuff
B
We're lining our homes against winding roads
And we think the going is tough
Em Am
We pick songs to sing, remind us of things that no body cares about G B
And honestly we're probably more suicidal than ever now
Em Am
G
If you decide to live by, what you think's wrong and what's right

B
Believe me you'll begin to wish you were sleeping
Em
Your weeping will creep in head and you'll cry
Am G
But if we wake up every morning and decide what we believe
B

Em Am G B
We can take a part our very heart and the light will set us free

C D Em
I am cold, can you hear
G B C
I will fly, with no hope, no fear
D Em
And the ground, taunts my wings
G D C
Plummet as I sing, plummet as I

D Em
I am cold, can you hear
G D C
I will fly, with no hope, no fear
D Em
And the ground, taunts my wings
G D
Plummet as I sing, plummet as I

C
How frustrating, and so degrading
D
His time, we're wasting
Em
And time will fly by and the sky will cry as light is fading
And he is waiting, oh so patiently
G D
While we repeat the same routine as we will please comfortability
C
Please think about why you can't sleep in the evening
D
And please don't be afraid of what your soul is really thinking
Em
Your soul knows good and evil, your soul knows both sides
G D
And it's time you pick your battle, and I promise you this is mine
