

Twenty One Pilots - The Line (From The Series Arcane League Of Legends)

tom:
Intro: Am

My body is on the line now
I can fight this time now
I can feel the light shine on my face
Did I disappoint you?
Will they still let me over if I cross the line?

Take a sit but I'd rather you not be here for What could be my final form
Stay your pretty eyes on course
Keep the memories of who I was before
So stay with me because

My body is on the line now
I can fight this time now
I can feel the light shine on my face
Did I disappoint you?
Will they still let me over if I cross the line?

Honestly, I thought I was fully prepared for The threshold in store
Stay your pretty eyes on course
I guess I never really faced my fears before
So stay with me because

My body is on the line now
Pull the blanket tight now
I can feel the light shine on my face
Did I disappoint you?
Will they still let me over if I cross the line?
(F G D Am)

Please don't let them see me
Show there's nothing left to try
I can feel the light shine on my face
Did I disappoint you?
Will they still let me over if I cross the line?

If I cross the line
If I cross the line
