

Twin Peaks - Mind Frame

Tom: D

Day turns to night when all is said and done
 I guess I wanted to be the lonely one
 When I wake up, I've got your thoughts on my mind
 Don't dim the lights until I've faded intuitions blind
 Oh, oh oh oh oh
 Some call it strange, it's just a frame of mind
 I never said that was ideal don't mean it ain't sublime

Beneath the moon, beyond the rising sun
 And as the stars come we'll have some fun
 Oh, oh oh oh oh
 And it gets dark
 Though I don't know why
 Can't seem to think alright
 Just wish that you'd come by-I-I-I-I-I
 Oh, oh
