

Two Door Cinema Club - Remember My Name

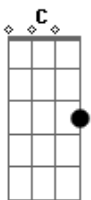

Tom: C

^{Dm} Lift the stone,
^F It can't be left alone
^{Dm} If I hide underneath
^G I give in
^{Dm} Turn the page
^F And forgive all my rage
^{Dm} And my pride at belief
^G I can win

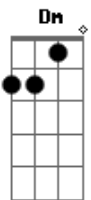

^F All is good,
^{Am} All is great,
^C And it's never too late
^F I will live to see another day
^{Am} The rising sun is sure to come
^F And I can hide,
^C But I can't run
^{Am} And fingertips
^{Em} On dried out lips
^F Reminding, too, that they are
^{Dm} One and the same,
^F But go by many names
^{Dm} To answer each of them
^G Is not a choice
^{Dm} So live unknown
^F Until you find a home
^{Dm} Until you find a way

^G To use your voice
^F All is good,
^{Am} All is great,
^C And it's never too late
^F I will live to see another day
^{Am} The rising sun is sure to come
^F And I can hide,
^C But I can't run
^{Am} And fingertips
^{Em} On dried out lips
^F Reminding, too, that they are
^F Only running round in circles every time
^F And it won't end
^G Until they understand
^F And I've been waiting for that moment on the line
^F And it won't bend
^G So take me by the hand
^{Am} The rising sun is sure to come
^F And I can hide,
^C But I can't run
^{Am} And fingertips
^{Em} On dried out lips
^F Reminding, too, that they are one
^{Am} And all that's passed
^{Em} Will make it last
^F If you never find a way
^G To remember my name
