

Two Door Cinema Club - You're Not Stubborn

Tom: G

Intro: G G Em Bm

G G
I was wrong I take it back
Em Em
Now can we get along give up the slack
Bm Bm
You know it all could be much easier
C C
But I'm still travelling I'm still travelling
And all the while the people talk
Em Em
About the unsung shit that they then stop
Bm Bm
And use to please the crowd the swarming hordes of
Fun that watch on in sunglasses
G Em
So if I'm wrong again I apologise
Bm G
You can take your guest I'll take out my eyes
G Em
It's a common thing to be out of line
Bm G
But it's getting old by the fifteenth time
G G
Take your time make up your mind
Em Em
Though it won't change the world you'll be more inclined
Bm Bm
To have a point of view that makes it through
C C
And keeps you travelling keeps you travelling
G G
So pick your friends forget the rest
Em Em
You can't live life being second best
Bm Bm

The critics talk of stubbornness

C C
But you're just passionate you're just passionate

G Em
So if I'm wrong again I apologise
Bm G
You can take your guest I'll take out my eyes
G Em
It's a common thing to be out of line
Bm G
But it's getting old by the fifteenth time

Instrumental: G G Em Bm(x4)

G Em
So if I'm wrong again I apologise
Bm G
You can take your guest I'll take out my eyes
G Em
It's a common thing to be out of line
Bm G
But it's getting old by the fifteenth time

G Em
So if I'm wrong again I apologise
Bm G
You can take your guest I'll take out my eyes
G Em
It's a common thing to be out of line
Bm G
But it's getting old by the fifteenth time

G Em
So if I'm wrong again I apologise
Bm G
You can take your guest I'll take out my eyes
G Em
It's a common thing to be out of line
Bm G
But it's getting old by the fifteenth time
