

Tyrone Wells - Happy As The Sun

```
Everyday with you just keeps getting better
Intro: G D Am D (x2)
                                                             G (prender a corda e na quinta casa e fazer uma apogiatura
                                                             com a nota da sexta casa )
                                                              the world as it should be,
Verse 1
                                                                          Em
                                                             when you are here [ Tab from: http://www.guitaretab.com/t/tyro
Whenever this world gets the best of me
       Em7
                                                             Bridge
and it all goes wrong
                                                                            G Em7
I count down the hours till the time we meet
                                                             How could I go wrong
       Em7
and I move along
                                                             when you are here with me
'Cause I know that when I see you I will be
                                                             How could I be anything but smilin'
              D
                                                             I am happy as the sun, Lighter than a feather
                       Am
Happy as the sun, Lighter than a feather
                                                                            D
                                                                                     Am
                                                             Walkin on the clouds, when we are together
             D
                   Am
                             D Walkin on the clouds, when we are together
                                                                            D
                                                              Everyday with you just keeps getting better
             D
                    Am
Everyday with you just keeps getting better G Em (prender a corda e na (prender a corda e na (prender a corda e na quinta casa e fazer uma apogiatura apogiatura com a nota da sexta casa) Em (prender a corda e na quinta casa e fazer uma
com a nota da sexta casa)
                                                              the world as it should be,
the world as it should be,
       Em G
                                                             when you are here.
when you are here with me. Here with me
                                                             Happy as the sun, Lighter than a feather
(repeat Intro)
                                                                           D Am D
                                                             Walkin on the clouds, when we are together
Whenever you leave my heart skips a beat
                                                                          D Am
                                                             Everyday with you just keeps getting better
        Fm7
like it knows you?re gone Em (prender a corda e na quinta casa e fazer uma
               Em7
                                                              apogiatura com a nota da sexta casa)
Unless you are here I am incomplete
                                                              the world as it should be,
G Em7
                                                                  Em G
I am undone song
                                                             when you are here with me.
Only you inspire the melody in me.
                                                             the worlds as it should be
                                                                             D
I am happy as the sun, Lighter than a feather
                                                             when you are here with me.
              D
                       Am
Walkin on the clouds, when we are together
                                                              (G D Am D G )
                      Am
Acordes
```

