

U2 - Cedars Of Lebanon

Tom: G

Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb

INTRO: Em Bm

Yesterday I spent asleep, woke up in my clothes in a dirty heap
 Spent the night trying to make a deadline
 Squeezing complicated lives into a simple headline
 I have your face in an old polaroid
 Tidying the children's clothes and toys
 You're smiling back at me, I took the photo from the fridge
 Can't remember what then we did

 I haven't been with a woman it feels, like, for years
 Thought of you the whole time, your salty tears
 This shitty world sometimes produces a rose
 The scent of it lingers but then it just goes

 Return the call to home

 The worst of us are a long, drawn out confession
 The best of us are geniuses of compression

You say you're not gonna leave the truth alone
 I'm here 'cause I don't wanna go home

 Child drinking dirty water from the riverbank
 Soldier brings oranges, he got out from a tank
 Waiting on the waiter, he's taking a while to come
 Watching the sun go down in Lebanon

 Return the call to home

 solo: Em Bm

 Now I got a head like a lit cigarette
 Unholy clouds reflecting a minaret
 You're so high above me, higher than everyone
 Where are you in the Cedars of Lebanon?

 SOLO:

 Choose your enemies carefully 'cause they will define you
 Make them interesting, 'cause in some ways they will mind you
 They're not there in the beginning but when your story ends
 Gonna last with you longer than your friends
