

U2 - Flower Child

Tom: G

In the beginning, Edge palm mutes the string and strums a few times, then flows into chord progression.

Verse:

G A D D
 On the fifth day of may, she was breaking away
 G A D D
 When the moon came and sat on your shoulder
 G A D D
 She was still young, not yet highly strung
 G A D D
 As you need to be when you get older
 G A D D
 George was a street, when you first faced the feat
 G A D D
 You put money on the color of the sky
 G A D D

Well the color of her voice left you there no choice
 G A D D
 But to drink the Liffey dry

Bridge:

F C
 The seeds that you sow
 G
 You wanna watch them growing

Chorus:

Am
 Wild, you grow wild
 G
 You grow wild in my heart
 C
 Wild, you grow wild
 Em
 You grow wild in my heart
