

U2 - Jesus Christ

Tom: A

A
D Well Jesus was a man
D Who travelled through the land
A E A hard working man and brave
A Well He said to the rich
D Give your money to the poor
A E A Well they laid Jesus Christ in His grave
A D Halle, hallelujah
A E Halle, hallelujah
A D Halle, hallelujah
A E A Well they laid Jesus Christ in His grave
A Well He went to the preacher
D He went to them all
A E He told them all the same
A He said sell all your jewellery
D And give it to the poor
A E A Well they laid Jesus Christ in His grave

Chorus

D When Jesus came to town

All the working fools around
A E Believed what he did say
A Well, the bankers and the preachers
D They nailed him on a cross
A E A And they laid Jesus Christ in His grave

D And fair working people
A They followed him around
D E They sung and shouted the day
A Well the cops and the soldiers
D They nailed him in the air
A E A Well they laid Jesus Christ in His grave, woah

Chorus x2

A Well this song was written
D In New York city
A By a rich man
E A A preacher, and a slave
A Well if Jesus was to preach
D What he preached at Galilee
A E A They would lay Jesus Christ in His Grave

Chorus x2
