

U2 - North And South Of The River

Tom: C

I want to reach out over the Loch
 And feel your hand across the water
 Walk with you along an unapproved road
 Not looking over my shoulder

I wanna see, and I wanna hear
 To under-stand your fears
 But we're north and south of the river

I've been doing it wrong all of my life
 This holy town has turned me over
 A young man running from what he didn't understand
 While the wind from the Loch just get colder, colder

There was a badness that had its way
 But love wasn't lost, love will have its day
 North and south of the river

North and south of the river

Can we stop playing this old tattoo
 Darling I don't have the answer
 I wanna meet you where you are
 I don't need ya to surrender

'Cause there's no feeling that's so alone
 When when the one you're hurting is your own
 North and south of the river
 North and south of the river
 North and south of the river

Some high ground is not worth taking
 Some connections are not worth making
 This old church bell no longer ringing
 Some old songs are not worth bringing
 North... / Higher ground is not worth taking
