

U2 - The Little Things That Give You Away

Tom: Db

(com acordes na forma de C)

Capostrate na 1ª casa

Intro: Am G F Dm

Am
The night gave you song
G
A light had been turned on
F
You walked out in the world
Dm
Like you belong there
As easy as a breeze
G
Each heart was yours to please
F
Is it only me who sees
Dm
There's something wrong there

Am
Oh,
G
I'm not a ghost there
F
I can see you
Dm
You need to see me

It's the little things that give you away
The words you cannot say
Your big mouth in the way
It's the little things that tease and betray
As the hunted I become the prey
It's the little things
The little things that give you away

Am
I saw you on the stairs
G
You didn't notice I was there
F
That's 'cause you were talking at me
Dm
Not to me
You were high above the storm
A hurricane being born
What was freedom
Dm
It might cost you your liberty

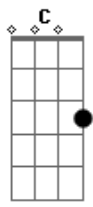

It's the little things that give you away
The words you cannot say
Your big mouth in the way
It's the little things that tease and betray

As the hunted I become the prey
It's the little things
The little things that give you away
(Am)
Sometimes
I can't believe my existence
See myself on a distance
I can't get back inside
Sometimes
The air is so anxious
All my tasks are so thankless
And all of my innocence has died
Sometimes
I wake at four in the morning
Where all the doubt is swarming
And it covers me in fear
Sometimes, sometimes, sometimes
Sometimes
Full of anger and grieving
So far away from believing
That any song will reappear
Sometimes
The end is not dawning
It's not coming
The end is here
Sometimes, sometimes, sometimes
Sometimes
Sometimes
I'm full of anger and grieving
So far away from believing
That any song will reappear
Sometimes
The end isn't coming
It's not coming
The end is here
Sometimes
