Tom: D

Intro: Bm G A A Bm G A Gb G D A Bm Em Em Gb Gb Bm

Bm
The hangman's waiting for then

A
With the rope in his hands
G Em
The silence makes him cast doubt
Bm
On their innocence

Bm
This cross I have to carry
This cross I have to bear

A
So keep your mind at ease

G
This blood that's on my hands
Em Bm
I simply wash away

A Em
I'm not a judge or a peer
Bm

Just a man with and iron heart

A G
And I can't set them free to live again

D A
It's their time, I won't stall
Em

And you should never blame me, I'm not at fault

D A
I don't strive for pleasure, cuz there will be none
Em G D

And no appreciation when the deed is done

Bm
The eyes all focus on me

A
As I walk to the side
G Em Bm
To pull the lever that could be released by anyone

A Em
It's a battle of will
Bm
Between conscious and righteousness

A G
And it's more than one soul that's on the line

D A
It's their time, I won't stall

Em G
And you should never blame me, I'm not at fault

D A
I don't strive for pleasure, cuz there will be none
Em G Bm
And no appreciation when the deed is done

Solo: Bm A G Em (3x)
Bm A G A

D
The hangman just stands in the distance

To be shunned in dismay

Em G
From any cynical feelings, I just shy away

D A
I won't find my glory, drying in the sun

Em G D
There's no appreciation when the deed is done
